Plan What You Will Tell the Viewers

Know your information before going outside. Be thoughtful and considerate on how you will honor how those in cultures around the world might handle this project.

1. Feet:

How many layers of socks are you planning on wearing?

What are they made of?

Is there a specific order, from bare foot to shoe that you are going to use? Why?

What kind of shoes (slippers, sneakers, hiking boots, including/not including Gore-Tex, etc) are you going to wear? What are you planning on doing with the shoes while you sleep?

2. Legs:

How many layers of pants are you planning on wearing?

What are they made of?

Is there a specific order, from bare foot to shoe that you are going to use? Why?

Are you planning on wearing more/less layers for shelter set up vs. sleeping?

3. Undergarments:

What material will all pieces of your underwear be made of and why did you choose this?

Will you multi-layer any of this?

4. Torso:

How many layers of shirts/jackets are you planning on wearing?

What are they made of?

Is there a specific order, from bare foot to shoe that you are going to use? Why?

Are you planning on wearing more/less layers for shelter set up vs. sleeping?

5. Hands:
